Xiao Ye is a neighborhood restaurant in the Hollywood district in Portland, Oregon serving first-generation American food. We believe in championing the food from our respective childhoods growing up in the suburbs of Los Angeles, as well as the recipes we've picked up along the way. Xiao Ye celebrates all the dimensions of our experiences as first-generation Americans, so you'll discover everything from rigatoni all'amatriciana to a half-fried chicken to savory madeleines made with masa and mochiko.

It's our hope that when you join us, you feel connection – with each other and with the food that weaves us all together.

large parties

Any party over 6 guests is considered a large party in our restaurant.

Depending on your party size & preferred level of privacy, we have a few dining options available.

main dining room

Our main dining room can accommodate large parties up to 12 guests. We offer a family-style pre-set menu at $85/pp and beverages can be ordered a la carte. No food and beverage minimum is necessary.

This dining option is ideal for celebratory gatherings, supper clubs hosted by friends, dinners with extended family, or business team meetings; any party that prefers to be part of our bustling restaurant with an open kitchen.

full buy-out

Xiao Ye is available for a full buy-out 7 days a week (including Sundays). Our entire restaurant can accommodate up to 60 guests for a seated dinner and 80 guests for standing room receptions. We begin your event with a cocktail hour that includes passed snacks before going into a seated family-style dinner.

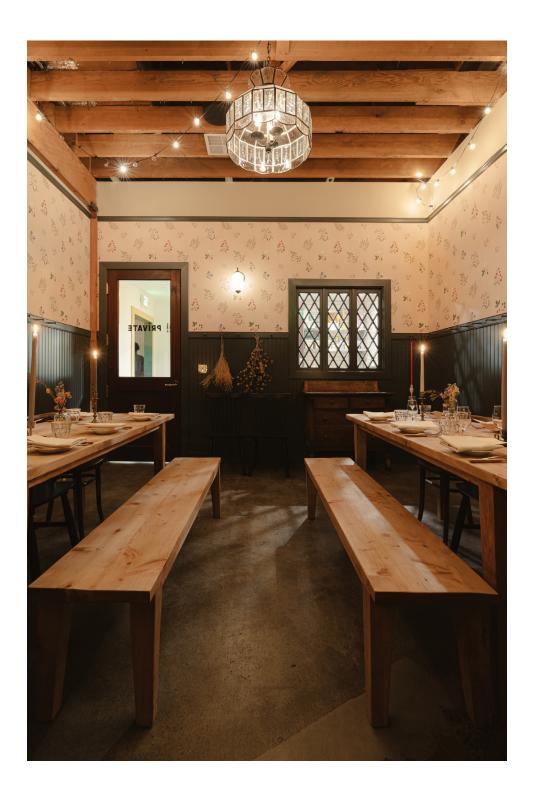

A full buy-out allows for our beverage & culinary team to tailor the menu to you and the flow of your event.

Our Food and Beverage Minimums Monday-Thursday: starting at $7000 Friday-Sunday: starting at $10,000 *Please note minimums are subject to change during peak seasons

This dining option is ideal for wedding receptions, company parties, launch events, family reunions, vow renewals, or groups that prefer to have more control over the flow of their night.

private dining room

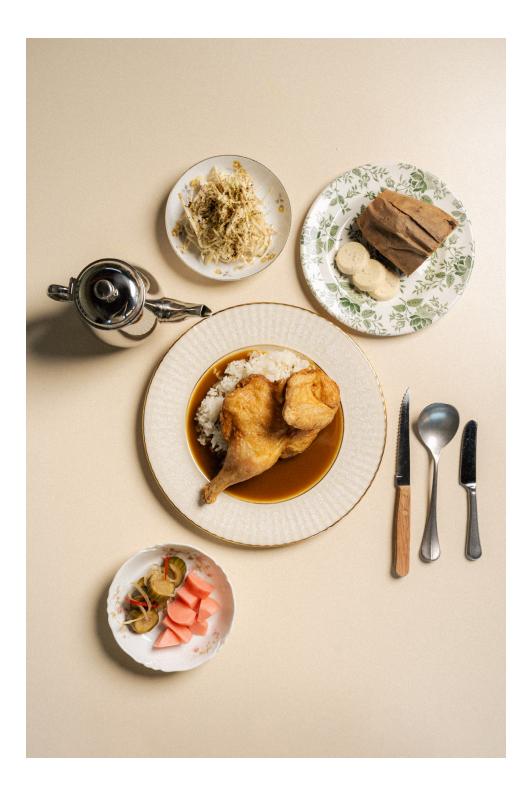

Our private dining room is located behind our kitchen separated from our main dining room. It comfortably seats up to 16 guests and depending on your party size, tables may be arranged with two separate farmhouse tables side-by-side.

Dinner parties in our private dining room will have a dedicated server, a fully private room, and a separate sound system for you to play music of your choosing. We do one seating per night, which means you will have your choice of start time within our hours of operation and have the room for the entire evening.

We offer a family-style pre-set menu at $85/pp and beverages can be ordered a la carte or pre-ordered for the ease of your guests. Our menu will go towards a food and beverage minimum of $1500.

This dining option is ideal for rehearsal dinners, birthdays, baby showers, company meetings, or groups that prefer a more intimate and cozy dining experience with not time contraints of other reservations.

Our dinner menu is everchanging and our family-style, pre-set menu is based off of our current menu at the time of your event. We take you through almost our entire menu to ensure you get the full experience of dining at Xiao Ye. With enough notice, we are able to accommodate most allergies and dietary restrictions in your party.
